The Auto Glass Replacement Safety Standards Council (AGRSS) Inc.'s board of directors elected Joel Timmons of Profitable Glass Solutions to the position of secretary during its annual meeting on March 10, 2009, in Charlottesville, Va.

Timmons' term began April 1.

"It is an honor to be selected by industry peers to serve on the AGRSS Council Inc. and I am privileged to serve as secretary during this term," Timmons says. "This is an exciting year for the AGRSS Standard with the upcoming launch of the third-party validation process and I am delighted to serve in this capacity to contribute to the ongoing success of AGRSS."

Timmons has worked with a number of companies from different areas of the industry, including Glass America, Diversified Glass and Dow Automotive. Today, he serves as president of his own glass-consulting company, Profitable Glass Solutions, which he founded in April 2007.

The Auto Glass Replacement Safety Standards (AGRSS) Council Inc. is the not-for-profit organization dedicated to the safe replacement of auto glass. AGRSS was founded and is supported by companies in the auto glass replacement industry that keep safe installation as their primary goal. The Council is also accredited by the American National Standard Institute (ANSI) – a standard development organization – and has developed North America's only auto glass replacement standard, the AGRSS Standard (ANSI/AGRSS 002-2002). The AGRSS Standard addresses procedures, education and product performance.
